Civil No. 10cv1450 DMS (JMA)

ORDER:

(1) GRANTING MOTION TO
PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS,
IMPOSING $12.20 INITIAL
PARTIAL FILING FEE AND
GARNISHING $337.80 BALANCE
FROM TRUST ACCOUNT
[Doc. No. 2];

(2) DISMISSING COMPLAINT
WITHOUT PREJUDICE FOR FAILING TO STATE A CLAIM AND
FOR SEEKING MONETARY
DAMAGES AGAINST IMMUNE
DEFENDANTS PURSUANT TO 28
U.S.C. §§ 1915(e)(2)(B) & 1915A(b);
AND

(3) DENYING MOTION FOR
SERVICE [Doc. No. 3] AS MOOT

25 Markus Jerrell Averhart ("Plaintiff"), an inmate currently housed at the Vista Detention
26 Facility located in Vista, California, and proceeding pro se, has filed a civil rights Complaint
27 pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. Plaintiff has not prepaid the $350 filing fee mandated by 28
28 U.S.C. § 1914(a); instead, he has filed a Motion to Proceed In Forma Pauperis ("IFP") pursuant

1 to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a) [Doc. No. 2]. In addition, Plaintiff has filed a “Motion for Service” [Doc.
2 No. 3].

3 I. MOTION TO PROCEED IFP

4 All parties instituting any civil action, suit or proceeding in a district court of the United
5 States, except an application for writ of habeas corpus, must pay a filing fee of $350. See 28
6 U.S.C. § 1914(a). An action may proceed despite a party’s failure to pay only if the party is 7 granted leave to proceed IFP pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a). See Andrews v. Cervantes, 493
8 F.3d 1047, 1051 (9th Cir. 2007); Rodriguez v. Cook, 169 F.3d 1176, 1177 (9th Cir. 1999).
9 Prisoners granted leave to proceed IFP however, remain obligated to pay the entire fee in 10 installments, regardless of whether the action is ultimately dismissed for any reason. See 28
11 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(1) & (2); Taylor v. Delatoore, 281 F.3d 844, 847 (9th Cir. 2002).

12 Plaintiff’s trust account statement shows an available balance of $61.00. Based on this 13 financial information, the Court GRANTS Plaintiff’s Motion to Proceed IFP [Doc. No. 2] and 14 assesses an initial partial filing fee of $12.20 pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(1). However, the 15 Watch Commander for the Vista Detention Facility, or his designee, shall collect this initial fee
16 only if sufficient funds in Plaintiff’s account are available at the time this Order is executed
17 pursuant to the directions set forth below. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(4) (providing that “[i]n no
18 event shall a prisoner be prohibited from bringing a civil action or appealing a civil action or 19 criminal judgment for the reason that the prisoner has no assets and no means by which to pay
20 the initial partial filing fee.”); Taylor, 281 F.3d at 850 finding that 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(4) acts
21 as a “safety-valve” preventing dismissal of a prisoner’s IFP case based solely on a “failure to pay
22 ... due to the lack of funds available to him when payment is ordered.”). The remaining balance
23 shall be collected and forwarded to the Clerk of the Court pursuant to the installment payment
24 provisions set forth in 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(1).

25 II. SCREENING PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. §§ 1915(e)(2) & 1915A(b)

26 A. Standard of Review

27 The Prison Litigation Reform Act (“PLRA”)’s amendments to 28 U.S.C. § 1915 also 28 obligate the Court to review complaints filed by all persons proceeding IFP and by those, like

1 Plaintiff, who are “incarcerated or detained in any facility [and] accused of, sentenced for, or
 2 adjudicated delinquent for, violations of criminal law or the terms or conditions of parole,
 3 probation, pretrial release, or diversionary program,” “as soon as practicable after docketing.”
 4 See 28 U.S.C. §§ 1915(e)(2)(B) and 1915A(b). Under these provisions, the Court must sua
 5 sponte dismiss any prisoner civil action and all other IFP complaints, or any portions thereof,
 6 which are frivolous, malicious, fail to state a claim, or which seek damages from defendants who
 7 are immune. See 28 U.S.C. §§ 1915(e)(2)(B) and 1915A; Lopez v. Smith, 203 F.3d 1122, 1126-
 8 27 (9th Cir. 2000) (en banc) (§ 1915(e)(2)); Resnick v. Hayes, 213 F.3d 443, 446 n.1 (9th Cir.
 9 2000) (§ 1915A).

10 Before amendment by the PLRA, the former 28 U.S.C. § 1915(d) permitted sua sponte
 11 dismissal of only frivolous and malicious claims. Lopez, 203 F.3d at 1126, 1130. However, 28
 12 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2) and § 1915A now mandate that the court reviewing an IFP or prisoner’s suit
 13 make and rule on its own motion to dismiss before directing that the Complaint be served by the 14 U.S. Marshal pursuant to FED.R.CIV.P. 4(c)(2). Id. at 1127 (“[S]ection 1915(e) not only permits,
 15 but requires a district court to dismiss an in forma pauperis complaint that fails to state a
 16 claim.”); see also Barren v. Harrington, 152 F.3d 1193, 1194 (9th Cir. 1998) (discussing 17 § 1915A).

18 “[W]hen determining whether a complaint states a claim, a court must accept as true all 19 allegations of material fact and must construe those facts in the light most favorable to the 20 plaintiff.” Resnick, 213 F.3d at 447; Barren, 152 F.3d at 1194 (noting that § 1915(e)(2)
 21 “parallels the language of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(6)”). Here, however, even 22 presuming Plaintiff’s allegations true, the Court finds his Complaint fails to state a claim upon 23 which relief can be granted. See 28 U.S.C. §§ 1915(e)(2)(B); 1915A(b); Lopez, 203 F.3d at 24 1126-27; Resnick, 213 F.3d at 446, n.1.

25 First, Plaintiff seeks monetary damages based on the alleged constitutional violations that
 26 occurred at his parole revocation hearing. However, to the extent that Plaintiff seeks money 27 damages based on an allegedly unconstitutional term of imprisonment, his suit is subject to 28 dismissal because a finding in his favor would necessarily imply the invalidity of his parole

1 revocation hearing. Heck v. Humphrey, 512 U.S. 477, 486-87 (1994). Under Heck, before
2 Plaintiff may seek damages related to his incarceration, he must show that the parole revocation
3 referenced in his Complaint has already been: (1) reversed on direct appeal; (2) expunged by 4 executive order; (3) declared invalid by a state tribunal authorized to make such a determination;
5 or (4) called into question by the issuance of a writ of habeas corpus. Id. at 487; see also
6 Butterfield v. Bail, 120 F.3d 1023, 1025 (9th Cir. 1997) (finding that Heck applies to a challenge
7 to the procedures used in the denial of parole); White v. Gittens, 121 F.3d 803, 807 (1st Cir.
8 1997) (applying Heck to the decision to revoke parole). Therefore, before any cause of action
9 for damages accrues related to Plaintiff's parole revocation, he must first allege facts which 10 show that those parole proceedings have already been invalidated. Heck, 512 U.S. at 487;
11 Butterfield, 120 F.3d at 1025.

12 Second, to the extent that he seeks monetary damages from Pat Shields, a Deputy
13 Commissioner with the Board of Parole Hearings, who presumably presided over his parole
14 revocation hearing, this Defendant is absolutely immune. State parole officials are absolutely
15 immune from damages actions based on any decision to impose a parole condition, to have a
16 parolee arrested for an alleged parole violation, or to institute judicial proceedings which result
17 in the revocation of parole. See Anderson v. Boyd, 714 F.2d 906, 909 (9th Cir. 1983); Demoran
18 v. Witt, 781 F.2d 155, 157 (9th Cir. 1985) (parole officers are entitled to absolute immunity with 19 respect to the preparation of parole revocation reports).

20 Accordingly, Plaintiff's Complaint is dismissed for failing to state a claim upon which 21 relief can be granted and for seeking monetary damages against immune Defendants pursuant
22 to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1915(e)(2)(b) & 1915A(b). See Lopez, 203 F.3d at 1126-27; Resnick, 213 F.3d
23 at 446, n.1.

24 III. CONCLUSION AND ORDER

25 Good cause appearing, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

26 1. Plaintiff's Motion to proceed IFP pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a) [Doc. No. 2] is 27 GRANTED.

28 2. The Watch Commander for the Vista Detention Facility, or his designee, is

1 ordered to collect the $12.20 initial partial filing fee assessed by this Order and forward that
2 amount to the Clerk of Court, if those funds are available at the time this Order is executed.
3 THE INITIAL PARTIAL FILING FEE SHALL BE CLEARLY IDENTIFIED BY THE NAME
4 AND NUMBER ASSIGNED TO THIS ACTION.

5 3. The Watch Commander for the Vista Detention Facility, or his designee, is ordered
6 to collect from Plaintiff's prison trust account the $337.80 balance of the filing fee owed in this
7 case by collecting monthly payments from Plaintiff's prison trust account in an amount equal
8 to twenty percent (20%) of the preceding month's income credited to the account and forward
9 payments to the Clerk of the Court each time the amount in the account exceeds $10 in 10 accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(2). ALL MONTHLY PAYMENTS SHALL BE 11 CLEARLY IDENTIFIED BY THE NAME AND NUMBER ASSIGNED TO THIS ACTION.

12 4. The Clerk of the Court is directed to serve a copy of this Order on Watch
13 Commander, Vista Detention Facility, 325 S. Melrose Drive, Suite 200, Vista, California 92081.

14 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

15 5. Plaintiff's Complaint is DISMISSED without prejudice for failing to state a claim
16 upon which relief may be granted and for seeking monetary damages against immune defendants
17 pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B) and § 1915A(b). However, Plaintiff is further
18 GRANTED forty five (45) days leave from the date this Order is "Filed" in which to file a First
19 Amended Complaint which cures the deficiencies of pleading noted above. Plaintiff's Amended
20 Complaint must be complete in itself without reference to his original Complaint. See S.D. CAL.
21 CIVLR 15.1. Defendants not named and any claim not re-alleged in the Amended Complaint
22 will be considered waived. See King v. Atiyeh, 814 F.2d 565, 567 (9th Cir. 1987). Further,
23 Plaintiff is hereby cautioned that if he elects not to amend, or if his Amended Complaint still 24 fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, the dismissal of this action may be 25 counted as a "strike" against him in the future pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g). See McHenry
26 v. Renne, 84 F.3d 1172, 1177-79 (9th Cir. 1996).

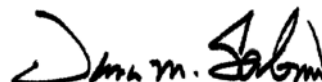

27 ///

28 ///

1 6. Plaintiff's Motion for Service [Doc. No. 3] is DENIED as moot.

2 7. The Clerk of Court is directed to mail a court approved § 1983 civil rights
3 complaint to Plaintiff.
